

Student: Aragón Ramírez Ángel Daniel

My opinion on environmental pollution is very large since they are more caused by the large industries of textile production, automotive, electrical products among others.

Where the pollution is found is in China where the highest rate of producers worldwide is found, this makes our planet deteriorate more because of the contaminations, and in turn the animals are also affected, in order to avoid more pollution is to stop consuming these products, but if we stop consuming it would no longer be the same in our day to day.